1. Send out the letter. Send out the letter I gave you that contains My words to you. Send it and let it be sent. Send it and let it do what I want it to do. Send it and let the chips fall where they may. Send it and not be ashamed to say the things I have told you for behold I am God. I am Me and I speak and I am speaking more and more to My people and especially the ones who will broadcast what I give them to broadcast, speak what I give them to speak, tell what I show them, utter My heart in purity and soft spoken-ness.

2. Tell them, show them, write them. Write what I have given you even about you and let me worry about who does what and how they interpret the words you share that I've given you. Go Ted, go and share. Go and write. Go and mail. Go and email. Go and perfect your website to convey My words. Convey My words, convey Me and I shall be pleased at you transmitting My words every day, every way you can.

3. I am doing a new thing. Even when I gave you that word years ago that you have read and shared and printed in your book. I am doing a new thing. I am. I am that I am and I am is doing a new thing. I am speaking and I will speak to those who let Me, want Me and seek Me as pure silver, as pure gold, and really, so much more.

4. I am more than precious jewels. I am life. I am love and I am has a body and I want My body to know Me and know that I am speaking today like never before in history. I am speaking and I am moving and I am desperate to make Myself known. Time is short and I have pulled out all the stops, all the stops from those knowing Me that want to know Me.

5. Confused Ted. So many are confused about Me and My desire and My ability to speak to them and their ability to hear Me and My voice, My provision, My direction, My Me that I provide them.

6. So many Ted, so many. That's why I can use you. I can use anyone who will choose Me and seek Me above all else, pay the price in time and effort and submission and surrender and lay before Me, making Me their priority. And then when I speak, obey, obey. Is it so hard to obey once you've paid the price? I think not. I hope not, for you know Me and you know of My meat and what I give in return for time with Me. You've experienced Me, some of Me, and you'll experience so much more as you continue to submit, surrender, and obey, doing as I say. Doing as I say whether it makes perfect logical sense to you or not, obeying whether it appears self serving to others or not, obeying if it appears abasing or not to yourself. Simple obedience. I will speak and I will commune with you and I will share My heart and lead you into the paths or righteousness I have before you. I will lead you as you let Me lead you.

7. Now Ted, listen to Me and listen well, listen deeply—let not your peace be robbed or allow yourself to feel hurt at what you may not understand or what people may say or do. Joy comes from Me. Joy in your soul comes from Me and you must protect your joy, your joy and confidence in Me and in you—what I am doing with you and what I am teaching you and what you know you will teach others.

8. Maturity Ted, maturity. You're right that I am calling My body to maturity, maturity in Me and not high-mindedness and doctrines of man, but Me, Me, Me—I am calling you to rise above the vain imaginations that would seek to rob your peace and deter what you are doing for Me. I will blow, I will blow on your words and I will blow on My words and I will blow on that which I have given you, and will give you. Shrink not back from people or things or situations or circumstances that appear to be confusing or appear to be incongruent with what I have and am and will tell you.

9. Go forward and be strong and get all your joy, all your identity, all your 'strokes' from Me, the I am. The I am Ted. Don't look back and wish for and want the praise of man when you can have what you have and what I have provided for you. Go forth forward, be strong and let them know, let them all know the words I give you, My words and your words, your words that you've written from My mouth to your heart.

10. And let them know that they choose and you choose, you've chosen and they have chosen and all of you can yet choose. Choose to seek Me, My face, and My words, or the praise of man. If you continue to seek Me and accelerate your walk with Me I will accelerate My walk with you commensurately, yea, maybe even exponentially, for that is more like I am

11. Some things are commensurate but most are exponential. You understand that don't you Ted? Teach it. Preach it. Write what I give you in joy and peace and let it take root where it will and produce harvests of exponential results. Exponential results, exponential results. Isn't that what you want Ted, exponential results? Yes, yes, yes, I know.

12. You are so limited and so finite and I am so infinite. I love to come and grow and advance and mature My people and propel them exponentially into the wisdom of My word and My ways. So many come but shrink back for their mind, logic and intellect take over and they fear the rejection of men more than they fear Me and the consequences of not going forward in Me. They fear. They fear but they fear the wrong things. So often they fear the wrong things.

13. Ted, write and write more and pull on the gifts I have given you. Pull on them. Exercise them continually to strengthen and mature them and if you err, I will take care of it. I will take care of you for I realize you are not perfect but I am. I am perfect and I am patient and kind and longsuffering to My people, My children, and especially those that seek Me with tenderness rather than arrogance and demands.

14. I love you Ted. I love you. I love you so much. Please tell all you can that I love them and I love them as much as I do you. And Ted, that I want to give them words from My throne, My heart, to their pen, just like I'm giving them to you.

15. Help them know that you are not special, but that you've chosen Me, Me, Me, and I choose those that choose Me. I will not disappoint them or you. My words are pure and I am pure and you are pure, pure in your heart before Me, your motives, to know Me and bless Me and bless My people and point them to Me.

16. Joy Ted, joy. Joy. Joy. Joy. Peace. My peace I give unto you. Reject not My peace to you in confusing times and situations and I will always speak to My son, My children, My body, in peace. This is irrespective of whatever may be going on, swirling around them in the natural. My peace, My peace, My peace which passes, transcends all earthly understanding. I speak in peace and I speak in power. I speak in power even in tenderness, great tenderness.

17. Ted, write, write, write and I will bless you and I will provide. Write, speak, teach, and preach and I will open the doors of opportunity that will stagger you, stagger your natural mind, for you will point all to Me, all, all, all, all in quiet, all in multitudes, one on one, two on two, multitudes on multitudes.

18. Put not up with those who lead others into what you know takes them away from Me. Just as I have told you repeatedly that you must listen to those I send you that may correct you—rebuke you in love, must you correct and rebuke in love, who I tell you to, who I tell you to Ted. Only the ones I tell you to—send you—to let them know what the Father is saying. Maturity is demanded, required for this—these times of both accepting correction and rebuke and of giving correction and rebuke. Love Ted. Love Me and love them. Love me more and love them more.

19. Go over the words I've told you, given you, imprinted on your heart and I will soon call upon you greatly, in great manner, to deliver in power what I have given you. My promises are true, My promises to you are true and I am happy, pleased, with what you have written and the way you have represented Me. Now go and grow and never stop going and growing, you and all those around you.

20. Tell them I love them and I want them to write as I speak to them and mature their gifts and callings and walk in love, honor, respect of all they contact and all they come in contact with. I operate with honor. I operate with integrity. I keep My word and promises.

21. I am that I am and I am has spoken and I love to speak and I want to speak through My people.

22. All those that don't reject My words to you should be encouraged by My words to you for I am speaking, I am correcting, I am judging and I am giving of Myself to My children, My people, My friends, like never before. This is the time. This is the time that so many have longed for to be a part of and see and materialize and move forward in.

23. Many before you have longed to be in the seat where you sit writing as you write what you're writing and doing and participating in what I have for you to move in, and do and lead and challenge and bring forth. Many Ted, many. Tell them now is the time I am breaking forth as the noon day sun—the bright and morning star—the lily of the valley—the ram in the thicket—the oil upon Aaron's beard—the great I am is burgeoning forth—flourishing in the common man—the common man Ted—the laity, as some call them, you know this, you knew this already, but you've given voice to this only sparsely up until now.

24. From this day forward you will give sparsely to it no more for this is of your focus, your purpose, your mission, your destiny. For you have chosen Me and choose to pay the price even the price that you know not of yet. You've already decided. Your jaw, your heart is determined and I will take you and elevate you as you say and do what I want said and done.

25. Honor Ted. Honor Me and honor those I bring to you to help you do what I want done. Not what you want done but what I want done. Me. My ways, My kingdom. Now is the time. My kingdom is coming like never before for those who will cry out to Me and seek Me in power, seek Me in relationship, seek Me in submission, rather than seeking just My principles to advance what they want to do.

26. I am moving and I am moving mightily. Much warfare, much warfare, much warfare in the heavenlies and on the earth and in the hearts of My people.

27. That's why Ted, so many of My people are dissatisfied with their status quo, the norm, the traditional, the historical, they, they that have Me in them anticipate, sense, feel that new is coming, new is happening, and there is much new Ted, much, much. Even the ones not of Me, many of them sense that change is here, significant change and that the future is not the past extended, extrapolated, as it has been for so long.

28. New Ted. Tell them I am doing a new thing and read that word wherever you go. Never tire of reading it for it is true and of Me and My heart and correct, accurate. Now go forth and write and grow and mature and keep, protect your peace so that you can hear My voice and My words and My values and those things which make up My kingdom. And Ted, touch My jewels for Me, My kids, My children, My family, My friends, touch them in love and help them know Me and hear My voice and be prepared for that which I do that is new, new, new, and that which I want to do through them, them, them, without respect of their social-economic status, education, or standing whatsoever on man's value system.

29. I choose and they choose. Tell them I choose them and help them choose Me, in submission and surrender, so I can give them of Me and My table and My body and My words. And Ted, beauty for ashes. I will give them beauty for their ashes if they will give Me their ashes. They must give me what they have and I will give them what I have and I have so much more. Strength, blessing, honor, fulfillment, joy, laughter, peace, and Ted, they can eat at My table, and eat what I serve rather than eating only of the systems of man, mammon, and the world. I choose them. I am calling. Come to Me. Tell them to come to Me and partake and participate in what I am doing and be not just a spectator in the new things I am doing.

30. Pray Ted. Pray more. Come to Me more. I will provide. I will provide you money to pay your bills as you come to Me more, so much more. Please come more. Ted, I have so much money but I have so few that will come sit at My feet and touch Me and let Me touch them, Ted, like you have done, like you are doing. Ted come and let Me give you more of Me and I will give you what you want and so much more, so much more, just—Ted, tell them, tell them please, plead with them to believe Me and My word and My words to you and believe, pray, submit, surrender, and come exchange beauty for ashes and eat of Me in what I have prepared for them.

31. Ted, money, money, money. You are so concerned about money and paying your bills and your debts and your taxes. And Ted, you have much that needs attention and repair and fixing. But Ted, I am God. I am that I am and you have chosen Me and chosen the better thing and now I declare unto you this day that all I have told you is true and I will provide. I will guide. I will speak to those that can hear Me, and some that don't even know they are hearing Me, to give into your bosom so that you can take care of these things and be not encumbered and weighted down with debts and those things of the past. You are Mine and the Ram has been provided. You have sacrificed much for Me and you paid a price to have Me and My words and what you have and now, even now, I prepare a table for those who will hear My voice, hear My words, My heart, and provide for you.

32. You are crying Ted. You're crying and your tears roll off your face as you write this. Ted, money is nothing, nothing, nothing to Me. You know that. I know you know that. Your heart is everything to Me, your surrender, your submission, your humbleness, your intense deep desire to keep others from hurting, your desire to give Me to others Ted, that is everything to Me. I will guide and I will provide and I will fix your home and I will provide those things which you have needed and wanted so long. You have put Me first and Ted, now I put you first. I lift you up and elevate and honor you for you are moving in Me and I thank you. I thank you. I thank you.

33. And I shall bring many forward to bless you and keep you and provide for you and protect you and do all the things I've told you. Honor them Ted. Honor them. Don't use them. Don't use them. Don't abuse them. Honor them. Honor them. Honor them and I will teach you progressively how to do this like I want you to do this.

34. Be patient, be Me, be My voice and speak My heart and worry no longer about money and dealing with feelings of failure as a provider financially for your family.

35. Promotion Ted, promotion. You have put Me first and I say it again lest you think you missed Me. Ted, I now put you first and I will raise up those that will provide for you financially for the rest of your life. You will never lack again. You will never lack again. Ted, hear Me, you will never lack again.

36. Now go and grow and incorporate and do what's in your heart—new wine in new wineskins—new foundation. Reclaim all the empty waste places for Me. Those that have been discarded by others. Claim and reclaim them for Me, for My body is big and My compassion is great and My manner longsuffering. Lead My people to Me. Come to Me more and I will expedite and accelerate funds, finances, and provision to you to do what simply, I want done. Ted, thank you for coming today. Thank you for honoring Me, worshipping Me, praising Me, talking out loud to Me, Me, Me and My father honor you, the Spirit honors you, Wisdom honors you, for Ted, the key, you honor us. Thank you. Thank you. Thank you.

37. Now go and grow and never become complacent in the provision I have provided for you. Never take My provision for granted. I give and I can take away. I can remove. I can honor and I can elevate. I can bring you before kings and I can make you walk on all fours under the dew of heaven. I am that I am and I am is pleased at your commitment to hear and deliver Me to others and we will provide. We will provide greatly. We will provide abundance to do and be what we want you to do and be.

38. Honor Ted. Honor Ted. Honor all men. Share C. M. Ward's message entitled, "Honor All Men." Share Burt Clendenen, his word on "The Invincible Man" if you can get it. Share those resources that I have brought you with others, and mature My body. Share Reese Howells and the other books, writers, authors, men and women of God you were thinking of this morning with others. [E. M. Bounds, Reese Howells, Dawson Trotman, Andrew Murray, Praying Hyde, Watchman Nee, Madam Guyon, Wesley and more.]

39. Point them to Me, to My Word, to My words, to My generals and lieutenants and captains and those who have sought Me totally unrecognized by the world. I have many of them in many lands who yet are unknown, virtually, almost unknown, that have sought Me. Share the kingdom with My people and let them grow and let them lead and mature and bless others and exceed you—pass you even in Me—and be joyful for those that exceed you for Ted, joy in Me, honor Me and I will honor you.

40. Thank you. Thank you again for coming today, today, today, even though you knew not what to expect after yesterday. It's okay Ted, it's of Me and you are in the palm of My hand and they are in the palm of My hand. I turn the heart of the king—the horse is prepared for the day of battle but the victory is of the Lord—that's Me Ted, Me, I am.

41. I like to call your name because you like to call Mine.

42. Now go and grow and be about My business and that which I have given to you and for you to do. Go to Russia. It's of Me. Go to Argentina and all the other places I will tell you. Make plans, set dates, watch Me provide. Watch Me speak to My people to provide for you and honor you and Ted, break Me to them, break Me and bless Me and pass Me all around to all those you can, all who will listen and partake of My body, My blood, My people, My Cross, My living water.

43. Tell them I love them and I love them deeply. I love them and I love you Ted. Thank you for obeying My word and going forth even when you don't know what you'll say and knowing you don't have the answers. I will guide. I will provide. I will do what I want done through those, all those, who choose Me and let Me operate through them.

44. Thank you. Thank you. Thank you.
